

2022 ANNUAL SUMMARY REPORT CROSS CONNECTION & BACKFLOW PREVENTION

ASR Contact Information: (if there are questions about the ASR who should we contact?)         Name:       Carl Schaumburg@corvallisoregon.gov       Phone #: +1 (541) 754-1768         Email:       Carl.schaumburg@corvallisoregon.gov       Phone #: +1 (541) 754-1768         Customer Base Who does your water system serve? Count each service connection only once, include connections with and without a backflow assembly.       17603         How many residential connections are in your water system?       17603         How many other types of connections not listed above?       5749         Enabling Authority An enabling authority is required for all community water systems. The enabling authority allows for a water system to discontinue service for various reasons. A sample enabling authority is available for small water system have an enabling authority?         Yes       Was your enabling authority revised within the last year?         No       No         Cartified Cross Connection Specialist Information:       No         Name:       Cart M: 1913         Cart Schaumburg@corvallisoregon.gov       Phone #: +1 (541) 754-1768         Does your water system have a current written backflow prevention program plan?       Yes         Does your water system have a current written backflow prevention program plan?       Yes         Does your water system have a current written backflow prevention program plan?       Yes         Does the backflow prevention plan include the foll	WS Name and PWS ID#: CORVALLIS, CITY OF, 41-0 System Size: Large System, 300+ connections	0225 Submitted: 02/27/23 1:42 PM
Email:       carl.schaumburg@corvallisoregon.gov       Phone #: +1 (541) 754-1768         Customer Base Who does your water system serve? Count each service connection only once, include connections with and without a backflow assembly.       17603         How many residential connections are in your water system?       17603         How many high hazard connections in your water system?       1660         Status       5749         Enabling Authority An enabling authority is required for all community water systems. The enabling authority is available for small water systems on our website: www.healthoregon.org/crossconnection. If you have not submitted an enabling authority revised within the last year?         No       Status         Does your water system have an enabling authority?       Yes         Name:       Carl Schaumburg@corvallisoregon.gov         Phone #: +1 (541) 754-1768       Phone #: +1 (541) 754-1768         Does your water system have a current written backflow prevention program plan?       Yes         Does your water system have a current written backflow prevention program plan?       Yes         Does your water system have a current written backflow prevention program plan?       Yes         Does your water system have a current written backflow prevention program plan?       Yes         Does your water system have a current written backflow prevention program plan?       Yes         1 A list of premises where health hazard cross connections ex	ASR Contact Information: (if there are questions about the
with and without a backflow assembly. How many residential connections are in your water system? How many high hazard connections in your water system? How many high hazard connections not listed above? Enabling Authority An enabling authority is required for all community water systems. The enabling authority allows for a water system to discontinue service for various reasons. A sample enabling authority is available for small water systems on our website: www.healthoregon.org/crossconnection. If you have not submitted an enabling authority to the State, please complete one and submit it as soon as possible. Does your water system have an enabling authority ? Yes Was your enabling authority revised within the last year? No This section is for Large Systems only (300+ connections) Cert #: 9193 Cert #: 9193 Email Address: carl.schaumburg@corvallisoregon.gov Phone #: +1 (541) 754-1768 Poes your water system have a current written backflow prevention program plan? Yes Does your water system have a current written backflow prevention program plan? Yes Procedure for notifying the water user if a non-health hazard or health hazard is identified, and for informing the water user of any corrective action required. A description of what corrective action required. A description of what corrective action required. A description of what corrective action swill be taken if a water user fails to comply with the water supplies cross connection assemblies installed, inspections completed, test results, and verification of current backflow assembly test certification. Yes		Phone #: +1 (541) 754-1768
allows for a water system to discontinue service for various reasons. A sample enabling authority is available for small water systems on our website: www.healthoregon.org/crossconnection. If you have not submitted an enabling authority to the State, please complete one and submit it as soon as possible. Does your water system have an enabling authority? Yes Was your enabling authority revised within the last year? No This section is for Large Systems only (300+ connections) Certified Cross Connection Specialist Information: Name: Carl Schaumburg Cert #: Email Address: Carl.schaumburg@corvallisoregon.gov Phone #: +1 (541) 754-1768 Does your water system have a current written backflow prevention program plan? Does the backflow prevention plan include the following: A list of premises where health hazard cross connections exist, including, but not limited to, those listed in Table 42 (High Hazard Table). Procedure for continually evaluating the degree of hazard posed by a water users premises. Procedure for notifying the water user if a non-health hazard or health hazard is identified, and for informing the water user of any corrective action required. The type of protection required to prevent backflow into the public water supply, commensurate with the degree of hazard that exists on the water user's premises. A description of what corrective actions will be taken if a water user fails to comply with the water supplies cross connection control requirements. Current records of approved backflow prevention assemblies installed, inspections completed, test results, and verification of current backflow assembly tester certification. Yees	<ul><li>with and without a backflow assembly.</li><li>How many residential connections are in your water system?</li><li>How many high hazard connections in your water system?</li></ul>	17603 1060
Certified Cross Connection Specialist Information:	allows for a water system to discontinue service for various r small water systems on our website: www.healthoregon.org/c authority to the State, please complete one and submit it as so Does your water system have an enabling authority? Yes Was your enabling authority revised within the last year?	easons. A sample enabling authority is available for prossconnection. If you have not submitted an enabling oon as possible.
Carl Schaumburg       9193         Email Address:       Carl.schaumburg@corvallisoregon.gov       Phone #: +1 (541) 754-1768         Does your water system have a current written backflow prevention program plan?       Yes         Does the backflow prevention plan include the following:       Yes         1. A list of premises where health hazard cross connections exist, including, but not limited to, those listed in Table 42 (High Hazard Table).       Yes         2. Procedure for continually evaluating the degree of hazard posed by a water users premises.       Yes         3. Procedure for notifying the water user if a non-health hazard or health hazard is identified, and for informing the water user of any corrective action required.       Yes         4. The type of protection required to prevent backflow into the public water supply, commensurate with the degree of hazard that exists on the water user's premises.       Yes         5. A description of what corrective actions will be taken if a water user fails to comply with the water suppliers cross connection control requirements.       Yes         6. Current records of approved backflow prevention assemblies installed, inspections completed, test results, and verification of current backflow assembly tester certification.       Yes		ons)
Does your water system have a current written backflow prevention program plan?       Yes         Does the backflow prevention plan include the following:       Yes         1. A list of premises where health hazard cross connections exist, including, but not limited to, those listed in Table 42 (High Hazard Table).       Yes         2. Procedure for continually evaluating the degree of hazard posed by a water users premises.       Yes         3. Procedure for notifying the water user if a non-health hazard or health hazard is identified, and for informing the water user of any corrective action required.       Yes         4. The type of protection required to prevent backflow into the public water supply, commensurate with the degree of hazard that exists on the water user's premises.       Yes         5. A description of what corrective actions will be taken if a water user fails to comply with the water suppliers cross connection control requirements.       Yes         6. Current records of approved backflow prevention assemblies installed, inspections completed, test results, and verification of current backflow assembly tester certification.       Yes	Name: Carl Schaumburg	9193 Cert #:
Does your water system have a current written backflow prevention program plan?       Yes         Does the backflow prevention plan include the following:       Yes         1. A list of premises where health hazard cross connections exist, including, but not limited to, those listed in Table 42 (High Hazard Table).       Yes         2. Procedure for continually evaluating the degree of hazard posed by a water users premises.       Yes         3. Procedure for notifying the water user if a non-health hazard or health hazard is identified, and for informing the water user of any corrective action required.       Yes         4. The type of protection required to prevent backflow into the public water supply, commensurate with the degree of hazard that exists on the water user's premises.       Yes         5. A description of what corrective actions will be taken if a water user fails to comply with the water suppliers cross connection control requirements.       Yes         6. Current records of approved backflow prevention assemblies installed, inspections completed, test results, and verification of current backflow assembly tester certification.       Yes	Email Address: carl.schaumburg@corvallisoregon.go	Phone #: +1 (541) 754-1768
<ol> <li>A first of prefinited where health hazard cross connections exist, including, out not initial to, mose fisted in Table 42 (High Hazard Table).</li> <li>Procedure for continually evaluating the degree of hazard posed by a water users premises.</li> <li>Procedure for notifying the water user if a non-health hazard or health hazard is identified, and for informing the water user of any corrective action required.</li> <li>The type of protection required to prevent backflow into the public water supply, commensurate with the degree of hazard that exists on the water user's premises.</li> <li>A description of what corrective actions will be taken if a water user fails to comply with the water yes suppliers cross connection control requirements.</li> <li>Current records of approved backflow prevention assemblies installed, inspections completed, test results, and verification of current backflow assembly tester certification.</li> </ol>		Vee
<ol> <li>Procedure for notifying the water user if a non-health hazard or health hazard is identified, and for informing the water user of any corrective action required.</li> <li>The type of protection required to prevent backflow into the public water supply, commensurate with the degree of hazard that exists on the water user's premises.</li> <li>A description of what corrective actions will be taken if a water user fails to comply with the water yes suppliers cross connection control requirements.</li> <li>Current records of approved backflow prevention assemblies installed, inspections completed, test results, and verification of current backflow assembly tester certification.</li> </ol>	in Table 42 (High Hazard Table).	Yes
<ol> <li>The type of protection required to prevent backflow into the public water supply, commensurate with the degree of hazard that exists on the water user's premises.</li> <li>A description of what corrective actions will be taken if a water user fails to comply with the water suppliers cross connection control requirements.</li> <li>Current records of approved backflow prevention assemblies installed, inspections completed, test results, and verification of current backflow assembly tester certification.</li> </ol>	3. Procedure for notifying the water user if a non-health haz	ard or health hazard is identified, and for Yes
<ul> <li>suppliers cross connection control requirements.</li> <li>6. Current records of approved backflow prevention assemblies installed, inspections completed, test results, and verification of current backflow assembly tester certification.</li> </ul>	4. The type of protection required to prevent backflow into degree of hazard that exists on the water user's premises.	the public water supply, commensurate with the Yes and verification of current backflow assembly tester certification.	suppliers cross connection control requirements.	Naa
/ // hubble adjestion program about cross connection control		fication. Yes

Assembly Data

Reduced Pressure Backflow Prevention Assemblies (RP, RPBA, & RPDA)

Are there any RPs installed in your water system? Yes	ſes
How many assemblies are installed in your water system?	1060
How many assemblies were tested?	995
How many assemblies passed their annual test?	939
How many assemblies failed their annual test?	51

Comments:_____

Double Check Backflow Prevention Assemblies (DC, DCVA, & DCDA)

Are there any DCs installed in your water system? Yes
How many assemblies are installed in your water system?	4875
How many assemblies were tested?	4785
How many assemblies passed their annual test?	4785
	67
How many assemblies failed their annual test?
Comments:

Pressure Vacuum Breaker Assemblies (PVB, PVBA, & SVBA)

Are there any PVBs installed in your water system?
How many assemblies are installed in your water system?	118
How many assemblies were tested?	110
How many assemblies passed their annual test?	110
How many assemblies failed their annual test?	1
Comments:	