YOUNG LIFE'S WASHINGTON FAMILY RANCH CROSS CONNECTION ENABLING AUTHORITY –
PUBLIC WATER SYSTEM NO. OR4101246

Young Life's Washington Family Ranch, PWS #OR4101246, is hereby adopting the following Oregon Administrative Rules; 333-061-0070, 333-061-0071, 333-061-0072, 333-061-0073 and 333-061-074, as in effect today, January 28, 2009, as our Cross Connection/Backflow Prevention Policy. Should the Oregon Department of Human Services Drinking Water Program amend the Oregon Administrative Rules in regards to Cross Connection/Backflow Prevention, Young Life's Washington Family Ranch shall adopt said amendments, as they pertain to community water systems, for inclusion in this policy.

This policy shall constitute our enabling authority; allowing Young Life's Washington Family Ranch to inspect and regulate all backflow prevention assemblies connected to our community water distribution system and includes our right to discontinue service to facilities failing to meet the requirements of this policy.

A handwritten signature in black ink, which appears to read 'Bill Palma y Mesa', is written over a faint horizontal line.

Bill Palma y Mesa
Water Quality/Water Resources Supervisor
